

Bangla-Banglish Book Review Corpus (BBBRC)

Annotation Guidelines

1. Overview

This document describes the annotation procedure used for the Bangla-Banglish Book Review Corpus (BBBRC). Each review is assigned exactly one of four sentiment categories.

2. Sentiment Categories

Literary Appreciation

Definition: Reviews expressing strong positive evaluation, admiration, enjoyment, or recommendation of a literary work.

Examples:

- "অসাধারণ একটি বই।"
- "Golpota darun legeche."

Label: Literary Appreciation

Analytical Reflection

Definition: Reviews containing balanced observations, analysis, interpretation, or reflective discussion without strong positive or negative sentiment.

Examples:

- "লেখকের দৃষ্টিভঙ্গি চিন্তা করার মতো।"
- "Boitir theme ta onek interesting."

Label: Analytical Reflection

Constructive Critique

Definition: Reviews mentioning weaknesses, limitations, or shortcomings while maintaining a balanced tone.

Examples:

- "গল্পটি ভালো, তবে শেষ অংশটি দুর্বল।"

- "Boi ta bhalo, kintu pacing ektu slow."

Label: Constructive Critique

Strong Critique

Definition: Reviews expressing strong dissatisfaction, disappointment, or rejection of the literary work.

Examples:

- "বইটি একদম ভালো লাগেনি।"
- "Somoy noshto chara kichui na."

Label: Strong Critique

3. Annotation Rules

1. Assign only one label per review.
2. Focus on the overall sentiment.
3. Ignore spelling mistakes.
4. Ignore script differences (Bangla/Banglish).
5. Use the dominant sentiment when multiple sentiments occur.

4. Annotation Process

- Three native Bangla speakers performed annotation.
- Reviews were independently labeled.
- Disagreements were resolved through discussion.
- Final Cohen's κ agreement score: 0.81.

5. Dataset Statistics

Total Reviews: 24,934

Classes:

- Literary Appreciation
- Analytical Reflection
- Constructive Critique
- Strong Critique